Share the stories you love—and spark new ones in our new FREE Library! Join us at Salacoa for a heartwarming community book drive to stock our brand new Little Free Library! We're collecting gently used children's and adult books to share the joy of reading with neighbors of all ages. Whether you drop off a single storybook or a box full of favorites, your donation helps spark imagination, curiosity, and connection right here in our community. Stop by, bring a book, and be part of building something special—one story at a time!
